Session Description

Do you want to succeed in life – and find happiness in what you are doing? Leadership and coaching expert Nigel Cumberland, author of 100 Things Successful People Do, is here to help! In this workshop he will teach you how to identify what makes you happy, what you are aiming to succeed at, and what you can change to make it happen.

For you to be able to look back and say 'I truly lived a successful life' means pursuing what kinds of aims and goals? What does success really look and feel like to you? In this workshop you will start to identify what you really want to achieve and be in your life and to explore which little exercises may help you create and maintain your unique definition of 'successful living'.

The Workshop Facilitator

Nigel Cumberland, founder of The Silk Road Partnership, is a well-known British executive coach who has helped and guided hundreds of individuals on their career, leadership and life journeys. In addition to '100 Things Successful People Do', he is the author of several self-development and leadership books, including 'Secrets of Success at Work: 50 Techniques to Excel', 'Your Job-Hunt Limited' and 'Leading Teams in a Week'. Last year Nigel was made a Freeman of the City of London and is on the Advisory Board of Harvard Business Review.
